New Members/guests: No new members or guests.

We were unable to determine quorum.

At this time we recessed back to board meeting and returned to main meeting at 7:11 pm.

President's Report: Linda did not have anything to report.

Vice President: Dian is working on a letter that is inviting other clubs to attend our meetings. She will bring it before the board for approval before she sends it out. She currently has 8 clubs she would like to send it to.

Jacqueline suggested to Dian about putting a blast out from facebook to generate new membership . Dian also stated that she would like to put out a flyer as well. Jacqueline also talked about "reaching out" to local barns to speak to them about CSHA.

Second Vice President: Sandy Casalino reported that she has arranged for the Islandic Horses to perform at our show, Aug 27th. They will perform during lunch break. Lucky J Embroidery graciously donated to purchase their lunch.

Treasurer's Report. Virginia reported the balance on club checking account. Anyone interested in obtaining the balance information may contact Virginia or Denise, club Secretary for totals.

Michele Correa presented a bill for $116.45 for website work completed last year. This was approved for payment during the board meeting prior to general meeting.

Secretary's Report: Denise , once again requested that anyone with a report to please e-mail information prior to meeting so she could have it already in her minutes.

English/Western Report: No Report this month.

Points Keeper: PLEASE make sure you have your points are turned in by 30 days of show. NO CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN FOR POINTS TURNED IN AFTER 30 DAYS!!!!

Trap: No new members this month. We do have members turning in hours. Dian would like have a silent auction /consignment booth (not a vendor) at the show. 10% of proceeds to Trap program and 90% to donator. Linda advised Dian to contact Sue for approval since it will be at our show.

Scholarship: Jacqueline reported on the 2016 Coto Foundation Educational Scholarship. It is open to all individuals 14-18. The scholarship is $ 1,500.00. The competition takes place in Woodside the first weekend of August. The testing consists of a written test, riding and interview. For more information you can go to state website. It is through the drill team However, you do not need to be a member of the drill team to apply.

Stock Program: We had two riders at our last show.

Sun Coast Pinto: We are joining up with Seven Counties Paint Horse and Region VI to have a one day show, Aug. 27th at Watsonville Fairgrounds. It is called The first annual All Breed Horse Show. Premium will be coming soon!

Gold Coast Arabians: We will be having a one day show. The show shall be Arabian/Open. The class list shall consist of 51% Arabian classes, remainder shall be open. The show shall be at the end of September.

Santa Cruz County Horsemen's Association: They have a new program called the Obstacle Ride. June 4th was their first competition. They had a very good turnout, 48 riders.

Golden State Appaloosa: Pick a Prize ride at Calero was held June 25th , with 11 riders.

Unfinished Business: Linda inquired if we had the final numbers yet for our show. It was also determined that the names of qualifying members needed to be submitted to State. Linda and Denise will determine the riders and submit to State by July deadline.

A motion by Denise Escover was made to adjourn the meeting at 8:26pm. A second was provided by Halie Roberts.
